The grape strike — a n

the socio-moral presuppositions underlying their thinking far more compatible to the socio-political prejudices of Time or Newsweek than to the valid social teachings of the Vicar of Christ.

I have particularly in mind the extraordinarily high priority these clerical spokesmen attach to the formation of a farm labor union. They seem to regard a labor union as the summum bonum, the ultimate good — or at least an absolute necessity for securing worker justice. This is not the thinking of the Supreme Pontiffs.

It is true that Pope Pius XI in his encyclical, Quadragesimo Anno, deplored the "criminal injustice" of those heads of states who denied to the economically weak "the natural right to form associations . . . to defend themselves from ill treatment at the hands of the powerful." But he was intent on avoiding the hazard of organized violence.

It is only under the compulsion of necessity, therefore, that he tolerated Catholics joining "secular" labor unions (i.e. non-religious oriented). The encyclical tolerates this only on condition that provision is made to imbue Catholic members with the principles of "religion and morality." (n. 32, 35.)

But the Pope does not consider the labor union the ideal. While he concedes the "natural right" of laboring men to form unions "to defend themselves" from the unscrupulous, he deplores the fact that this is ever necessary; and he strongly recommends organizing along other lines, less inherently oriented to conflict. This is a point that is rarely if ever sufficiently acknowledged by people who fancy themselves champions of "Catholic social thought."

STILL FASTING: Cesar Chavez attends the Mass celebrating the end of his 23-day fast. After the Mass he broke his fast by breaking bread with friends. Present was the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

In Quadragesimo Anno, Pope Pius complained that "as the situation now stands, hiring and offering for hire in the so-called labor market separates men into two divisions, as into two battle lines, and the contest between these divisions turns the labor market itself almost into a battlefield where, face to face, the opposing lines struggle bitterly." Organization along such "battlelines" is quite acceptable to anyone interested in promoting class conflict, but it should be quite unsatisfactory to any Christian, especially to anyone familiar with the authoritative Catholic social teaching.

"Everyone understands," continues the Pope, "that this grave evil which is plunging all human society to destruction must be remedied as soon as possible. But complete cure will not come until this opposition has been abolished and well-ordered members of the social body — Industries and Professions — are constituted in which men may have their place, not according to the position each has in the labor market but according to the respective social functions which each performs." (The Pope envisaged here organizations along the lines of the old guilds in which workers and employers worked together with Christian respect and concern for each other.)

Here we have in broad outlines from an authoritative Catholic source the organizational ideal for our economic sector. Although it was delineated in 1931, it is still brand new — a light hidden under a bushel, almost universally ignored by our "Catholic" spokesmen who have gained a public hearing. It is still the genuine Catholic social teaching and it is still pertinent. In his encyclical, "Mater et Magistra," Pope John XXIII reminds us that, "Workers and employers should regulate their mutual relations in a spirit of human solidarity and in accordance with the bond of Christian brotherhood. For the unregulated competition which so-called liberals espouse, or the class struggle in the Marxist sense, are utterly opposed to Christian teaching and also to the very nature of man." (n. 23.)

The organization presently realized in the grape fields of California is far closer to this Catholic ideal than is the Union proposed by Cesar Chavez and his promoters.

The relationship of the growers and workers in Delano is quite close. It is true that out in the fields there is a crew boss to supervise the crews. In the presence of the workers, he represents the boss; in the presence of the boss, he represents the workers. But this does not mean that there is no communication between the boss and the worker. Beatrice Aglipay, wife of one of the Delano workers, said of the workers: "They can talk to their bosses anytime; they have no problem communicating, none at all!" As for the bosses: "They're out in the field every day. They call individual men by name. . . . The majority of the growers are considerate of their workers and really have

and the C. B. as a cloak a rapport with them. . . . There's no lack of communication."

Especially pertinent to our present consideration, she added, speaking of the workers: "They've had a union of their own, without signing any papers or going on a strike. All they do is just tell the boss what they want and they usually get it."

When the question of worker-grower consideration for each other comes up, I am reminded of the manifest concern DiGiorgio had for his workers, and how ecstatically appreciative his workers were for what he had done for them. I think of Dolores Mendoza referring to the "Louie Lucas farm as "our" farm; but I think especially of John Garabedian, the grower I talked to up near Fresno.

We were driving in from the field on our way to the packing shed, discussing the union. "If my help today wants to join any union of their choice," John said, "they are free to do so. I cannot stop them. I wouldn't even try." But his help, some of whom had worked for him for 25 years, were fearful that John might crumble under the pressure and signed up for the union, leaving them trapped. Not John. "I'm free to sell my freedom," he said, in an amazingly matter-of-fact way, "but I'm not going to sell the freedom of my workers." I got the distinct impression that John Garabedian would quit his hard earned business rather than sell his workers short, by making them join a union if they did not want to.

The impression I had when I left Delano was, and my more considered opinion to-day is, that the organization the workers and the growers now have is adequate; that it is quite satisfactory to both growers and workers; and that it is far closer to the Christian ideal than the union of Cesar Chavez promises to be.

Delayed progress

Two businessmen were discussing their hometowns and each tried to best the other. One topped it with: "Why, my hometown is always behind the times. We don't even get June bugs until the Fourth of July." — William Beaver.

If he swam back to his hotel why didn't the two other men, who went back with him to the scene of the accident, report the drowning of that poor girl?

Not once did Kennedy even say he was sorry for what he had done to her and to her poor family. His writers slipped on that.

Dear Sir:

Because of the pressure from my father I must send you this note. On my trip from Washington, D.C. to New York, I met on the train a young man, also from Wash., D.C., who promised to write to authorities that Teddy Kennedy killed Miss Mary Jo K., (sorry I do not know how to spell her last name), because sh/e was his mistress, and claimed to be pregnant.

My father blames you that you let it out of your hands without any autopsy, etc. how did it happen that her body was on the back seat, and 101 other discrepancies in this whole case. I am on my way back to Wash., D.C., but because of my work I am sorry that I cannot identify myself, but I am sending a c/c of this letter to our famous Edgar Hoover with the hope that he is not going to put it into a waste-basket.

May the God's own punishment come on Ted - a shame to have such a Senator.

Re: Senator Edward Kennedy

Dear Sir:

It is not reasonable to expect an autopsy to be done in the case of the death of the woman with whom Senator Kennedy was involved. This would certainly seem obligatory unless sufficient monetary or political pressure had been exerted to avoid such a step.

There is enclosed herewith for receiving offices a true copy and a Xerox copy of a threatening letter addressed to Senator Edward Kennedy, Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C. Also enclosed is a copy of the envelope in which this letter was mailed. The envelope bears a postmark of 6/25/69, at Chicago, Illinois. The unknown subject also sent as an enclosure with this letter the cover page of "Parade" a syndicated newspaper supplement dated 5/11/69, taken from the Chicago Sunday Sun-Times. On the cover of the newspaper magazine is a photograph of Senator Edward M. Kennedy. Since it bears no handwriting, however, it is not being enclosed herewith to receiving offices.

The above-described items were made available to the Bureau by Secret Service through established liaison channels. The original letter in question, the envelope and the newspaper enclosure have been submitted to the FBI Laboratory where appropriate examinations will be conducted. You will be advised of the results of these examinations separately. This letter states in part "There's a nut in New York City that's out to kill you. This nut is watching every move you make and he's going to shoot you." In view of this statement, copies of this letter are enclosed for New York and New York is instructed to inform proper authorities. WFO also should advise proper authorities of the threat.

Chicago should discuss this matter with the U. S. Attorney to determine whether or not it constitutes a violation of the Federal Extortion Statutes. Submit results of investigation in a form suitable for dissemination to reach the Bureau by 7/31/69.

We are warning you if anything happens to Prosecutor Dine (because he is trying to get that autopsy) we are going to come after you, we want shoot you, like your brothers were, we are going to take you to the same spot at midnight & dump you into the turbulent waters where you let your car roll off with M. Just take a look at that picture of you addressing the public in behalf of yourself

You are the most stupid, stupid, stupid unscrupulous, inhuman murderer of our times.

You surely don't think that the American public really believe what you have said

Jumping in those dark waters, time & time again to try & save that poor unfortunate girl, that you murdered.

You never got your big fat neck head wet.

What about that brace on your neck, you stupid, you put that on for effect.

When one sprains one's stupid neck the brace is worn for months. You wore yours 3 days

I know the unfortunate Mary Jo, & she asked my advice but she did not listen to me.

I told her not to tell you, about her being pregnant as I know the ruthless Kennedy's especially your father, & you are a chip off the old block.

She then told you that you got her pregnant & that was her Waterloo.

You then had your cousin Gargen & Kathleen rent the cottage & all those girls, all you married men have been having sex with for some time.

The party was going along in full swing when you whispered

"AN AMERICAN TRAGEDY"

No Autopsy in Time for the Mary Jo Inquest

By ANTHONY BURTON

Staff Correspondent of THE NEWS

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 25—The inquest into the death of Mary Jo Kopechne, who perished when Sen. Edward Kennedy's car plunged off a bridge on Chappaquiddick Island last month, will be held next week without evidence from an autopsy.

This became clear here today after attorneys had argued in a Luzerne County courtroom whether the girl's body should be exhumed from St. Vincent's Cemetery at Larksville.

"To have an inquest without an autopsy would be like hitting a home run and not touching first base," declared Armand Fernandez, representing the office of the district attorney for Southeast Massachusetts.

Minimum of 48 Hours

But Judge Bernard Brominski adjourned the hearing without announcing a decision. He told me later: "You can assume there will be a minimum of 48 hours before I make my decision. Then it will go by mail to the parties involved."

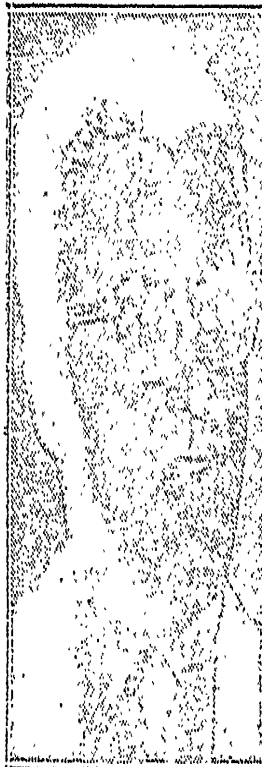

"The parties must then have at least 10 days' notice of any hearing."

have to go ahead in the absence of any finding from an autopsy. Even if I agreed to a hearing on the application for an exhumation, obviously there would not be enough time to get any results before the inquest."

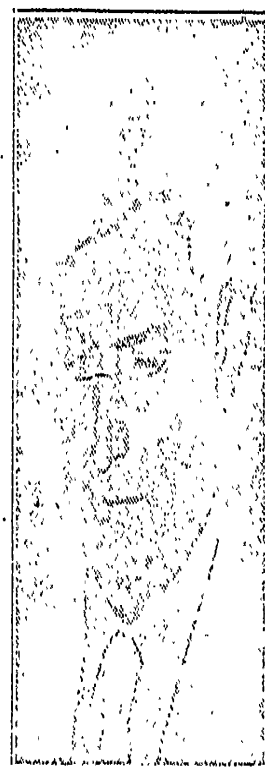

Declines Comment

The official who will not let the Kopechne case be forgotten, District Attorney Edmund Dinis of the Southern District of Massachusetts, declined comment on the development.

Dinis, a thick-set man wearing a blue serge suit and rimless glasses, had flown here to fight a motion by the Kopechne family that his petition for exhumation be dismissed. Today's arguments went no further than the question of whether an exhumation hearing should be held. The family was not present.

Why Rumors About Kennedy Case Refuse to Die

By TED LEWIS

Washington, Aug. 25—A month has gone by since Teddy Kennedy went on nationwide television to end further speculation about the circumstances surrounding the drowning of Mary Jo Kopechne.

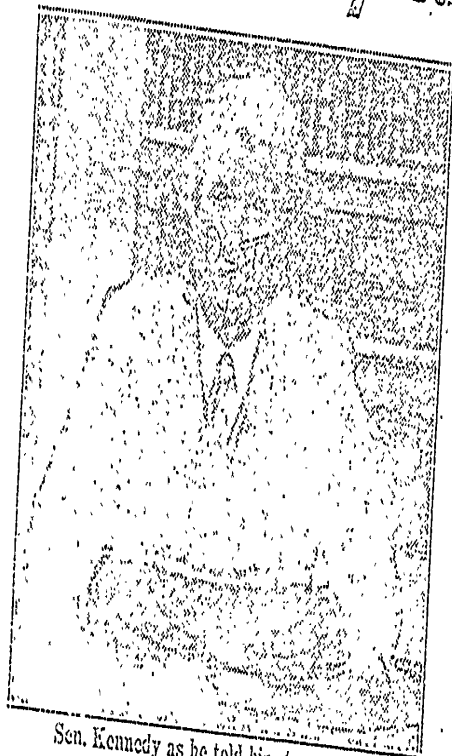

His failure to do so is now self-evident. There has been more speculation since than before. In all probability, it will never die down. The formal inquest, at which witnesses will be under oath, will, at all likelihood, provide only leverage for more rumors, if, as expected, those at the Chappaquiddick house-party support the Kennedy version.

The Whispers Won't Go Away

It thus follows that Kennedy is going to have to live the rest of his life with what the public has already decided is a mystery about which the unfinished truth will never be known. Under such circumstances, every rumor that suggests that the Kennedy account is inaccurate takes on the sense of fact, titillating the public appetite.

Every time that Kennedy takes note of such a rumor by saying he doesn't "have to live with the spys, innuendoes and falsehoods," it becomes a statement that he really does have to.

What has happened in the accepted drowning case in the last few weeks, actually has superimposed two mysteries on the original one. One concerns the refusal of many to believe the young senator's explanation. The other concerns Kennedy himself, whether or not he is moving toward an

Sen. Kennedy as he told his story on TV.

"agonizing reappraisal" of his decision to stay in politics, in the Senate.

Why is there such widespread disbelief in Kennedy's account of what happened on the night of July 18? Kennedy himself must, on the basis that he has told exactly what happened, wonder about this.

Perhaps the answer lies in the natural reaction to a case where the proper kind of investigation didn't figure in the original on-the-scene police activities.

The "father" of the idea of scientific investigating processes was Francis Bacon, the mental genius of England in the 1600s. As one historian interpreted Bacon's effort, "What he urged was the need of making belief rest on proof, and proof rest on the conclusions drawn from evidence by reason."

It is the lack of proof to date that makes belief questionable in Kennedy's version of the Chappaquiddick case. Moreover, if "proof rests on the conclusions drawn from evidence by reason," then Every effort was made during the course of the interview to get [] to name the 25 government officials the Minutemen will allegedly take reprisal against if [] is convicted. However, as is indicated in the 302, [] is hostile toward the Bureau and refused to be more specific concerning the statement.

It is the opinion of the NYO that [] is referring to the same information which appears in NH airtel to Director, dated 4/23/68 captioned, "[] aka; [] IS-Misc." During the interview of [] which took place on 4/9-11/69, [] advised in part as follows:

[] has issued orders to other Minutemen that [] and [] are to be shot on sight. [] has issued orders that if he goes to jail, the following persons are to be assassinated: [] Kansas City radio station employee; ATTU Special Investigators [] and []; FBI Special Agent [] St. Joseph, Missouri; ROY BRANSON; United States Attorney for Kansas City, Missouri; United States Attorney for New York City; RAP BROWN; STOKELY CARMICHAEL and MARTIN LUTHER KING."

b6
b7C

[] stated that in the event [] is imprisoned, [] has left orders that the persons to be assassinated are [] ATTU Special Investigators [], FBI Special Agent [] and the United States Attorney for Kansas City. Regardless of whether he is imprisoned or not, [] are to be shot on sight. [] further told them that if the above mentioned persons, other than [], are assassinated the case against him would "go up in smoke and they would have to start from scratch."

Concerning the assassination of RAP BROWN, STOKELY CARMICHAEL, MARTIN LUTHER KING and LOUIS LEFKOWITZ, New York Attorney General, [] told him that in the event there is not a sufficient racial riot condition in the United States to start a revolution the Minutemen would create a revolutionary condition by assassinating BROWN, KING and CARMICHAEL. He could furnish no specifics regarding details of a plan to assassinate [] and only recalled that his name had been mentioned to him as on the list for assassination by [].

b7C

NY 100-159249

[] added that [] figured that the revolution in the United States would start with the coming Summer, 1968 riots and this is the time the Minutemen would take action with the ultimate goal of taking over the Government.

He added that [] mentioned to him several prime targets for strike teams in the line of assassinations. One of the targets mentioned was the nine Supreme Court Judges. He said that he was also told that in case of a nuclear attack or chaotic condition in the country that a relocation center for the President would be Georgetown, Colorado. Further, that at least one strike team was to be sent to Georgetown, Colorado, to assassinate the President, the Vice President and any of the President's cabinet who might be at this relocation site to carry on Government business.

[] stated that [] told him that with the assassination of the President, the Supreme Court Judges and the cabinet, he, [], and his Executive Council, would then move in to maintain order in the Government until a governmental body could be formed from the Patriotic Party. [] stated that there is no Executive Council and that [] is the Executive Council.

b7C

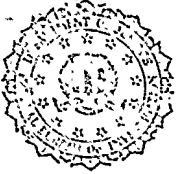

The NYO has requested the AT & FD, N.Y., to contact their confidential source who is familiar with [] and his Minutemen activities in an attempt to determine further details concerning [] statement.

Detective [] Special Services Division, NYCPD, and Investigator [] NYSP, and Lt. [] Nassau County PD were advised of the contents of the 302.

b6
b7C

Copies of the LHM are being disseminated locally to Secret Service, the 108th MI Group, OSI, NISO and AT & FD, NYC.

It is to be noted that when [] mentioned the Senators he in no way inferred that their names were on the list of 25 government officials to be assassinated.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date October 9, 1969

[redacted] Roosevelt, New York, voluntarily furnished the following information:

He is employed weekends as a milk deliveryman for a dairy in Queens, New York, and is regularly employed as a warehouseman for the [redacted] [redacted] Roosevelt Field, Long Island, New York.

b6
b7C

He is fully aware that [redacted] is presently being brought to trial through his contacts with members of the Minutemen and through close contacts he has maintained with [redacted] wife. He declined to state whether these contacts are personal, through the mail, or by other methods of communication.

He advised that he is presently a member of the Minutemen and is in close contact with Minutemen members in New York state and Connecticut. He declined to be more specific.

The Minutemen, according to [redacted] are presently "fighting a war against the Communists" and it is the belief of Minutemen members and himself that Communists in the United States should be shot or assassinated without benefit of trial or due process inasmuch as they are enemies of the United States. He declared that sometime in the future, when the time is right the Minutemen will take positive and violent action against Communists in the United States. In this connection he advised that the Minutemen maintain a list of thousands of Communists. He commented that he himself feels that the time has now arrived to "start the war".

b7C

The federal, state, and local governments, according to [redacted] contain numerous Communists and in this connection he named Senators JAVITS and GOODELL from New York state and Senator KENNEDY from Massachusetts. When questioned as to the basis for his naming the above as Communists, he stated that they very obviously followed the "Communist line".

He declared that [redacted] is being "framed" by the government and the FBI in connection with the charges pending against him in Seattle. He is certain that should [redacted] be convicted, the Minutemen will take reprisal by executing twenty-five Communist government officials.

[redacted] conviction is based partially on a statement or speech made by [redacted] approximately one year and a half ago when he is alleged to have stated, "If I am shot or brought to trial, twenty-five government officials will be killed", and also on the basis of his membership in the Minutemen, a knowledge of the organization's credo, and his association with members and their activities. He reiterated that this action would only be taken against "Communist" officials.

[redacted] denied that he is presently involved in the planning or execution of violent acts or that he intends to participate in any attempts on the lives of government officials. He denied possessing any firearms, weapons, or incendiary devices.

b7C

He declared that he would never cooperate with or otherwise furnish any assistance to the FBI in any type of investigation and alleged that the FBI has consistently harrassed and "framed" members of the Minutemen.

[REDACTED]

APPENDIX

"MINUTEMEN"

The "Minutemen" was organized in June, 1960. Its present headquarters are Norborne, Missouri. [REDACTED] Norborne, Missouri, has been publicly identified as the founder and National Coordinator of the organization since its inception. Membership of the "Minutemen" is claimed by [REDACTED] to be in excess of 35,000 members; however, confidential sources state this figure is greatly exaggerated and that a more true estimate would be between 500 and 1,000 members. Statement by [REDACTED] and literature distributed by the organization indicate its purpose to be the resistance to, and exposure of, the spread of Communist influence within the United States; for the formation of a guerrilla or underground organization to combat the troops of any foreign powers which might eventually occupy this country; to resist passage of laws which would regulate private ownership of firearms.

b7C

In April, 1966, [REDACTED] stated the "Minutemen" organization was then dividing itself into two bodies: one group to be members who have been able to maintain their identity in complete secrecy from the public and government investigative agencies, and the other group to be made up of members who have been publicly identified and who will become active in the Patriotic Party. National conventions of the Patriotic Party were held in July, 1966, at Kansas City, Missouri, and July, 1967, at Kansas City, Kansas.

Members of the "Minutemen" organization, including [REDACTED] and his close associate, [REDACTED], have been arrested in the past on charges of violation of the Federal Firearms Act, Bank Robbery - Conspiracy, Illegal Possession of Firearms and Conspiracy to Commit Arson. They have also engaged in maneuvers utilizing guerrilla tactics wherein machine guns, mortars, grenades, and other firearms were employed.

NOTE:

In referenced letter to Charlotte we furnished a copy of a letter from subject which was received by U. S. Senator Schwäiker's office on 10-23-69. This letter contains a veiled threat to Senator Edward M. Kennedy. Charlotte was instructed to discuss the prosecutive merits of this matter with Office of U. S. Attorney regarding a possible violation of the Federal Extortion Statute.

Incoming correspondence from subject indicates our Agents interviewed her and she still remains adamant that she "hates the dirty skunk" Senator Kennedy but that she would not "waste a bullet on the rat." She identifies herself as a 62-year-old shut-in who has no intention of killing Kennedy.

The Office of U. S. Attorney, Charlotte, felt this case does not have prosecutive merit. In view of the action already taken and the decision of the U. S. Attorney's Office, it is felt further acknowledgment of this letter is not necessary.
